

PNAC training course concludes

ISLAMABAD - PNAC conducted five days training of trainers (ToT) on Governance and Leadership from June 18 to 22. The participants attending the training were a unique blend of staff, board members and NGO representatives of PNAC. Equal representation from throughout Pakistan could be witnessed in the ToT, says a Press release issued here on Saturday.

This training was a component of PNAC TAMEER project. The facilitation was mainly by PNAC and IWW Staff, though many guest speakers were invited. The guest speakers were: Haris Khalique (SPO), Rai Azhar (Advocate High Court), Dr. Farah Mufty (MoPW) and Anees Jillani (Advocate Supreme Court). PNAC and IWW personnel providing facilitation services were Aftab Awan, Yusra Qadir, Zubair Kayani and Abid Atiq.

The ToT clarified a lot of concepts regarding governance and good governance. Furthermore, a lot of focus was given to determinants and frameworks of leadership.

The participants also learnt the standard board structure and the role of office bearers. The training featured mock sessions in which participants were individually evaluated.
